About 123 House North

This Brockton house has 19 beds for men and holds MASH certification. It sits in Plymouth County, and it is the smaller of the two 123 House homes in Brockton; 123 House South, with 20 beds, is the other. The house keeps its street location private and does not post rent online.

123 House is a local operator running several men's sober homes south of Boston, including one in Taunton. Every house is reached through the same intake line, which is also the number on file with MASH. MASH certification means the house passed an inspection against national recovery residence standards.
