About This Recovery Home

Rose Sober House is sober living for women in Springfield, Massachusetts, a recovery residence with 15 beds on Northampton Avenue. Bedrooms are spread across three floors of what intake staff call a beautiful home; fourteen beds are shared and one room is private. Women here have air conditioning, Wi-Fi, laundry, storage and a computer station, and parking is first come. Grocery and pharmacy, counseling, bus service and parks are close, and Springfield offers a good number of women-focused recovery meetings. The house belongs to the Vanderburgh Sober Living network and is run directly by Vanderburgh House, LLC. Each Monday at 6pm the women gather for their house meeting, and a live-in House Mentor helps newer residents settle. Curfew is 10pm on weekdays and 11pm on weekends; screening happens at random. Rose is the only women's home Vanderburgh House runs in Springfield. It also runs two men's houses nearby, Matt's Place Sober House and Pearl Sober House, and another women's house to the west, Pittsfield Sober House.

Home Leadership & Certification

Rose Sober House is run directly by Vanderburgh House, LLC rather than by an outside operator. Rose Sober House operates to the standards of The Vanderburgh Foundation.

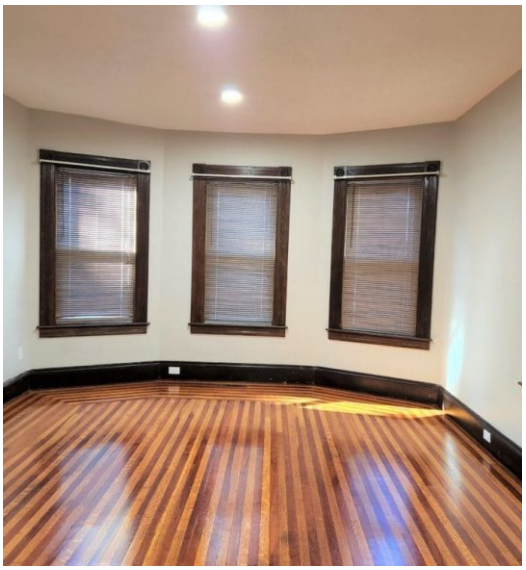
Rose Sober House — Springfield, MA

Vanderburgh SOBER LIVING

Life in the House

Rose is a house for fifteen women in Springfield, with bedrooms on three floors. A house that size has room for women at different stages, and newer guests learn a lot from the women who arrived before them. The women share the household, encourage each other and keep the home substance-free. A House Mentor lives in the house and is there for support and coaching.

Each Monday at 6 PM the house sits down for its meeting, which is where problems get raised and worked out. Weekday curfew at Rose is 10 PM, and on weekends it is 11 PM. Random drug and alcohol tests apply to all fifteen women.



What the Structure Looks Like

- Bedrooms on three floors, for fifteen women
- Curfew at 10 PM weekdays, 11 PM weekends
- Unannounced drug and alcohol testing, for everyone
- House meeting on Mondays at 6 PM, every week
- A House Mentor living at Rose, for support and coaching

About Vanderburgh House, LLC

Rose Sober House is run directly by Vanderburgh House, LLC rather than by an outside operator. Vanderburgh House sets the house expectations and oversees the home's day-to-day operations, so residents and their families have one clear point of contact for anything the house needs.

A House Mentor lives at Rose and supports the women through the routines of early recovery: the Monday 6 PM house meeting, curfew, shared chores and random drug and alcohol screening. The focus is a respectful shared home where newer residents can settle in, find work and build steady daily habits.

As a chartered home, Rose Sober House operates to the standards of The Vanderburgh Foundation and carries the support of the wider VSL network.
