About This Recovery Home

Stoodley Sober House is sober living for men in Claremont, New Hampshire, with seven beds in a restored Victorian manor on Broad Street in the downtown district. One bedroom is private and six beds are in shared rooms, and the bedrooms run large. The house has air conditioning, WiFi, cable, a computer station, storage and laundry, plus decent driveway space for cars. Work, transportation, counseling, a grocery and pharmacy, and parks are all close by. The home takes its name from Dr. Roland V. Stoodley, a longtime Claremont resident. Enomay Sober Living Housing operates the house as a chartered member of the Vanderburgh Sober Living network. A House Mentor lives here, drug and alcohol screening is random, and the men meet weekly as a household. Curfew is 10 pm Sunday through Thursday nights and 11 pm on weekends; a guest whose shift runs later can stay out past it by showing his work schedule. With seven men in the house, an absence gets noticed. Stoodley is currently the only Vanderburgh home in Claremont.

Home Leadership & Certification

The Stoodley Sober House in Claremont, New Hampshire offers a truly recovery-focused environment for men in recovery looking to take the next step in their journey to a new life. Stoodley Sober House operates to the standards of The Vanderburgh Foundation.

Vanderburgh SOBER LIVING

Life in the House

Stoodley is a small house for seven men in downtown Claremont, run by Vanderburgh Sober Living staff and named for Dr. Roland V. Stoodley. With seven guests, the household is close: everyone knows everyone, and a man who is struggling cannot hide it for long. The men rely on each other and on a House Mentor who lives in the home for support, coaching and encouragement.

Curfew is 10 PM during the week and 11 PM on weekends, unless a guest is working past curfew and can show his schedule. Drug and alcohol tests are done at random. The house meeting day is still being set.

What the Structure Looks Like

- Seven men, in a close household
- Downtown Claremont, near the start of the bus loop
- Random drug and alcohol screening, for all guests
- 10 PM weekday curfew, 11 PM on weekends, with work exceptions
- A House Mentor living at Stoodley, for coaching and encouragement
